Moore ribbon cutting

Clockwise, from top: a ribbon-cutting ceremony was conducted Saturday for the Harry T. and Harriette V. Moore Memorial Park Reflecting in Mims; Jack Masson, right, Brevard County parks and recreation director, introduces William Gary, president of the Harry T. and Harriette V. Moore Cultural Complex Inc.; Juanita Evangeline Moore, daughter of the Moores, speaks to the crowd about her parents, who were killed after a bomb blast on Christmas night in 1951. Harry Moore organized the first Brevard branch of the NAACP in 1934 and later organized more than 50 branches statewide. The Moores also were active in increasing voter registration and pushing for equal pay for blacks.
