Bunny Bash at Ted Whitlock Community Center

PALM BAY, Fla. – Children can celebrate spring with Brevard County Parks and Recreation at the Ted Whitlock Community Center's Bunny Bash on Saturday, March 27 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. The cost is $3 per child 12 and under.

The Bunny Bash will offer games, crafts, a bounce house, a sidewalk chalk contest, and egg hunts for children 12 and under. The egg hunt for children 6 and under will begin at 10:30 a.m. and the hunt for children 7 to 12 will begin at 11 a.m. Prizes for the egg hunts and the sidewalk chalk contest have been donated by Chick-fil-A, Jason's Deli, Krispy Kreme, Olive Garden, Cinemaworld, Galaxy Skateway, On the Edge Rock Climbing, Premiere Theaters Oaks Stadium 10, Shore Lanes, Space Coast Iceplex, Wet 'n Wild, Sam's Club, Target, and other local businesses.

Animal Love Inc. will be on hand with live bunnies and some of their furry friends, and the Spring Bunny will also be available for pictures. Concessions will be available for purchase. All children must be accompanied by an adult.

The Ted Whitlock Community Center is located inside Palm Bay Regional Park, 1951 Malabar Road NW, in Palm Bay. For more information, please call the center at (321) 952-3231.
